

The Chesapeake Chorale's Emerging Composer Competition

Application Form

Name:

Email address:

Post-Secondary University/College/Conservatory:

Title of Composition:

Estimated Performance Length (minutes):

Proprietary Information: Please indicate the source of any text that you did not compose. Include the names of any collaborators and attach documentation of the responsibilities of those artists.

Artist Statement: In 150 words or less, please describe the main idea(s) of the piece and how this was realized musically in your composition.

Interpretation: Please provide rehearsal and performance notes that will guide the interpretation of your work for performance. You may attach materials if needed.

Agreement: By signing below, I agree to all of the following:

- All materials that I submit become the property of the Chorale and will not be returned.
- The Chesapeake Chorale will retain all first-performance rights until further notice of the award-winning selection and any awarded honorable mention.
- The Chesapeake Chorale will release those rights if the submission is not selected.

Signature:

Date:

Additional Instructions: By June 1st, 2019,

- Use postal mail to submit the following to the Chesapeake Chorale (P.O. Box 1037, Bowie, MD, 20718):
 - A single copy of the score with SATB vocal parts and accompaniment if applicable
 - A piano reduction of vocal parts
 - Application Fee: A check made payable to the Chesapeake Chorale for $25
- Email to the Chesapeake Chorale (info@chesapeakechorale.org):
 - Completed Application (PDF or DOC)
 - A PDF score with SATB vocal parts and accompaniment if applicable
 - A PDF piano reduction of vocal parts
 - A MIDI file of the piece
 - Optional: Audio recording of a vocal line with accompaniment